PER CURIAM.

DISMISSED. Johnson v. First City Bank of Gainesville, 491 So. 2d 1217 (Fla. 1st DCA 1986) (stating that in civil cases, this court has consistently held that an order which grants a motion to dismiss the complaint, but does not actually dismiss the complaint, is not an appealable order and such an order is not a final order).

MAKAR, OSTERHAUS, and BILBREY, JJ., concur.

Not final until disposition of any timely and authorized motion under Fla. R. App. P. 9.330 or 9.331.
